

Ivana Milanović, Full Professor

University of Belgrade, Faculty of Sport and Physical Education,

Blagoja Parovića 156, Belgrade, Serbia

Full Prof. Ivana Milanović, PhD is working at Department of Physical Education on Faculty of Sport and Physical Education, University of Belgrade, Serbia. Her main research interests include Physical Fitness, Physical Activity and Nutrition, Didactics of PE and Motor Development of children and youth. At this moment, she is one of the coordinators of the research project „Development and application of software for monitoring the physical fitness of students in primary and secondary education“ implemented by the University of Belgrade (Faculty of Sports and Physical Education and Faculty of Organizational Sciences) and the Ministry of Education (The Institute for Assessment of Education Quality in Serbia). During the last ten years, she was also involved in the following projects approved and financially supported by the Ministry of Education: „Improving the quality and accessibility of education in modernization processes in Serbia“ No 47008 and „The effects of physical activity application to locomotor, metabolic, psychosocial and educational status with population of the Republic of Serbia“ No III47015. During 2016, she was one of the coordinators of the project “Active youth for a healthier life: Health, lifestyles and physical fitness of young people”, conducted in collaboration with Serbian Institute of Sport and Sport Medicine. She participated in international European project: Sport 4 all – Erasmus plus project, European Union (2017-2018) and The European Network for the Support of Development of Systems for Monitoring Physical Fitness of Children and Adolescents – FitBack, European Commission Erasmus+ Programme Sport (2019–2022).

Ivana Milanović is working as adviser at the Center for Health, Exercise and Sport Sciences (CHESS) in Belgrade. Also, she is FIEP national delegate. She published more than 80 papers in journals of national and international importance as well as in Conference proceedings of national and international meetings.